Dear Secretary Dortch and Director Connors:

This correspondence relates to Delaware's exercise of the decision-making responsibilities which the Federal Communications Commission, in its Numbering Resource Optimization proceedings, has delegated to state public utility commissions.

At its meeting on November 19, 2002, the Public Service Commission of the State of Delaware ("Del PSC") entered PSC Order No. 6064 (Nov. 19, 2002). In that Order, the Del PSC expressly declines to undertake the functions delegated to state commissions under 47 C.F.R. §§ 52.15(f) (6)(ii)-(iii); 52.15(g) (4); 52.15(i) (2), (4), & (5); and 52.15(j) (2)-(3). In so doing, the Del PSC understands that the power to grant "waivers" from the 6-month activation rule for central office codes (47 C.F.R. § 52.15(i)) will pass to NeuStar, Inc., as both the NANPA and National Pooling Administrator. See 47 C.F.R. § 52.15(i) (7). Similarly, as the Del PSC understands it, the authority to decide Delaware carriers' "safety valve" requests (47 C.F.R. § 52.15(g)(4)) as well as non-sequential assignments (47 C.F.R. § 52.15(j)(2)) will pass to the FCC or the NANPA.

In Order No. 6064, the Del PSC outlined the reasons for its decision. They included: (1) its lack of resources to perform the delegated functions; (2) the uncertainties about whether it could render final decisions within the expected time frames; and (3) the potential problems in dealing with non-jurisdictional CMRS carriers in the context of numbering assignments.

However, in declining to exercise the above-described functions, the Del PSC does not forego the opportunity to access numbering resource data and carrier applications related to Delaware under the provisions of 47 C.F.R. §§ 52.15(f)(7) & 52.15(g)(5). The Del PSC believes it must maintain that ability in order to allow it to judge whether it should - at some later time - assume the delegated functions. Finally, by now declining those functions, the Del PSC reserves the right to later assume those functions if circumstances make such action appropriate.

A copy of Order No. 6064 can be found at the Del PSC's website at www.state.de.us/delpsc. If you wish, I can provide you a hard copy of the Order. If you have any questions, please contact Connie Welde ((302) 739-3227) or Gary A. Myers ((302) 739-2534).

Sincerely yours,
